

Midlands Women's Health: Complaints Procedure

We aim to provide exceptional, patient-centred care. If you feel we have fallen short of the high standards we set for ourselves, we want to hear from you so we can put it right.

Stage 1: Local Resolution

Most concerns can be resolved quickly by speaking directly with the staff involved in your care.

- Outcome: We will review the initial findings and provide a final internal decision within 20 working days.

Stage 3: Independent Adjudication (ISCAS)

As a private provider, if you remain dissatisfied after Stages 1 and 2, you have the right to an independent external review. Midlands Women's Health follows the ISCAS Code of Practice.
